Fee

Lawyers may be suspended under Rule 6.01(f) upon non-payment of annual enrollment fees. If their non-payment exceeds three years, they must apply for reinstatement under Rule 5.28. In 2014, the OCDC investigated and processed six applications for reinstatement by those lawyers. Four were reinstated. One application was denied. One application remained pending at the end of 2014.

Returns to Active Status

Lawyers may elect to become inactive under Rule 6.03. Per Rule 6.06, the OCDC investigated and processed 73 inactive lawyers' applications for reinstatement. Sixty-six were returned to active status. One application was dismissed, and six applications remained pending at the end of 2014.

MCLE

Lawyers may be suspended for non-compliance with Mandatory Continuing Legal Education requirements under Rule 15.06(f). During 2014, the OCDC investigated and processed seven MCLE suspension applications for reinstatement. Three were reinstated. One application was denied, and three applications remained pending at the end of 2014.

IV. COMPLAINTS RECEIVED AND ACTED UPON IN 2014

1,917 complaints of attorney misconduct were received in 2014.

During 2014, the following actions were taken on complaints received:

- 852 Formal Investigations opened
 - 521 Cases investigated by Regional Disciplinary Committees
 - 331 Cases investigated by OCDC
- 42 Cases placed in the OCDC's Informal Resolution Program
[*See Paragraph A (below)]
- 940 Investigations not opened (In certain instances, OCDC does not open an investigation until after related litigation is completed.) Approximately 112 complaints were provided a further review and response by senior OCDC staff, following complainants' requests. Some of those reviews led to an investigation being opened.
- 65 Insufficient information to proceed
- 40 Referred to Fee Dispute Committees
- 14 Referred to Complaint Resolution Committee (See Missouri Bar Complaint Resolution Activity Report attached.*)
- 18 Placed in "Inquiry" status (These cases were not opened but were monitored to determine whether an investigation should be opened in the future.)

A. Informal Resolution Program

In this program, intake counsel assigns appropriate cases to a paralegal to contact the complainant, the respondent, or both, to assist in resolving the complaint rather than proceeding with a formal investigation. The program is used most often in response to complaints that the client has not had adequate communication from the lawyer or where the client has been unable to obtain file documents. It may also be used in a case where the complainant has trouble articulating the nature of the complaint, or seems confused about the lawyer's responsibilities or the legal process. The program has been successful in reducing complaint processing time while preserving the attorney/client relationship. Most cases in the program were resolved without opening an investigation.

B. Advisory Committee Review

Rule 5.12 permits complainants to seek review by the Advisory Committee in cases in which the OCDC or a Regional Disciplinary Committee investigated and found insufficient probable cause to believe that an attorney was guilty of professional misconduct that would justify discipline. In 2014, 54 complainants requested review. The Advisory Committee upheld the findings on 30 of these files but issued a cautionary letter to one lawyer. The Committee assigned eight of the review files for further investigation. Fifteen of these review files were pending with the Committee at the end of the year.

C. Fee Disputes

The Missouri Bar and Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association continued to provide fee dispute resolution programs. These programs are valuable to lawyers and legal consumers by providing a forum for fee-related complaints to be addressed through a non-disciplinary structure. During the year, 40 complainants were referred to Fee Dispute Committees.

D. Overdraft Notification

In 2010, the Supreme Court adopted an amendment to Rule 4-1.15 of the Rules of Professional Conduct that requires financial institutions holding lawyer trust accounts to notify the OCDC in cases where the trust account is overdrawn. In 2014, the OCDC received 148 overdraft notifications. Many of these involved negligent or careless management of trust accounts, which were often handled by education and follow-up monitoring without discipline. Some overdrafts were more serious, either by scope of the problem or by the intention of the attorney. Various levels of discipline were necessary in these matters in order to protect the public and the integrity of the profession.

V. DISCIPLINE ACTION INITIATED

A. Admonitions

The OCDC administered 55 written admonitions and the Regional Disciplinary Committees administered 38 written admonitions to Missouri lawyers. (Total: 93 admonitions). In addition, 183 cautionary letters were sent to lawyers by OCDC and the Regional Committees. Cautionary letters are not disciplinary action, but are used to educate the attorney on ethical responsibilities or to alert the attorney that a particular course of conduct, if unchecked in the future, may cause additional complaints to be filed.

C. Filed Hearing Matters

FILING INFORMATION

In 2014, the OCDC and the Regional Disciplinary Committees filed Informations (the formal charging document) on 55 files. “Files” indicate individual complaints against attorneys. An Information against one attorney may include charges involving multiple files.

Twenty-six Informations, representing 76 complaint files, were pending before the Advisory Committee and Disciplinary Hearing Panels at the beginning of 2014. Disciplinary Hearing Panels conducted 15 hearings involving 27 files. Eleven default Informations were filed directly in the Supreme Court.

D. Cases filed at the Supreme Court

RULE 5.19

In 2014, three disciplinary hearing panel decisions were approved by the Missouri Supreme Court, pursuant to Rule 5.19(c), without requirement of briefing and argument.

Informant’s briefs were filed pursuant to Rule 5.19(d), in the Supreme Court in 18 cases. Of those 18 cases, seven were heard because the Respondent did not concur in a DHP’s recommended sanction, two were heard because the Informant did not concur in a DHP’s recommended sanction, and nine were heard after the Court rejected a joint stipulation or statement of acceptance of the panel’s decision. In addition, an Informant’s reply brief was filed in one case. Twenty disciplinary cases appeared on the Court’s oral argument calendar in 2014.

RULE 5.20

Seven reciprocal discipline cases, based on adjudication of misconduct in other jurisdictions, were filed in 2014: In re Barker, SC94401; In re Hasty, SC94591; In re Johns, SC94095; In re Meyer, SC94672; In re Mintz, SC94163; In re Scholz, SC94244; and In re Wilson, SC94071.

RULE 5.21

Effective September 1, 2014, Rule 5.21 was amended. During 2014, two Informations were filed under Rule 5.21(a) against attorneys who had pled guilty or pled nolo contendere to violations of criminal laws: In re Gladders, SC94343 and In re Turner, SC94631.

Also in 2014, prior to the amendment, Informations were filed under Rule 5.21(c) against three attorneys whose criminal cases were finally disposed: In re Mask, SC94219; In re Murdick, SC94220; and In re York, SC94403.

Following the amendment, Informations were filed under new Rule 5.21(d) against attorneys whose criminal cases were finally disposed, and who had previously been suspended under Rule 5.21(a): In re Gladders, SC94563 and In re Sigillito, SC94557.

Finally, following the amendment, Informations were filed under Rule 5.21(e) against two attorneys whose criminal cases were finally disposed but who had not previously been suspended on an interim basis under Rule 5.21(a) or 5.21(b): In re Hardy, SC94682 and In re Robbins, SC94673.

RULE 5.23

In 2014, an Information was filed under Rule 5.23(c) against one attorney, based on the attorney's contention that he was disabled from continuing to practice law by reason of mental infirmity: In re Raines, SC94399.

RULE 5.24

Two Informations requesting interim suspension for substantial threat of irreparable harm were filed in 2014: In re Hale, SC94690 and In re Masterson, SC94043.

RULE 5.25

In 2014, five attorneys applied to surrender their licenses under Rule 5.25: In re Cipriano, SC94360 (accepted September 18, 2014); In re Kellett, SC94111 (accepted April 23, 2014); In re Rives, SC94179 (accepted May 28, 2014); In re Smith, SC94047 (denied April 2, 2014); and In re Whitworth, SC94334 (accepted August 26, 2014). The OCDC filed Reports and Recommendations in each of these cases.

VI. LAWYER MONITORING

OCDC staff monitor lawyers' practices in four circumstances, all intended to improve the lawyers' likelihood of maintaining a successful practice and protecting the public. In 2014, the office monitored 16 lawyers in the disciplinary diversion program established by Rule 5.105. The diversion program was created to help offenders who have engaged in relatively minor rule violations.

Forty-nine lawyers were monitored in 2014 while on probation under Rule 5.225, the rule permitting probation for suspended lawyers whose conduct did not warrant disbarment. Also, the office was asked by the Missouri Supreme Court and Missouri Board of Law Examiners in 2014 to monitor the practice of 21 newly admitted lawyers. Finally, in 2014, the office monitored the practice of 17 lawyers who have been reinstated subject to an order of probation.

VII. UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE OF LAW

The Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel opened complaint files on approximately 17 individuals and organizations alleged to have engaged in the unlawful practice of law.

Some of these cases were referred to local prosecuting attorneys or to the Consumer Protection Division of the Missouri Attorney General's office. Others were resolved through communication with the company or individual.

Due to the workload and staff resources of OCDC, the office focused its efforts on conducting in-depth investigations in those cases where it appeared that widespread consumer fraud was occurring. Where appropriate, the office conducted investigations of complaints, and the office referred the materials to law enforcement for criminal prosecution as OCDC is only authorized to seek a civil injunction against a party for engaging in the unauthorized practice of law.

VIII. PRESENTATIONS BY OCDC STAFF

During 2014, OCDC staff gave 19 presentations at Continuing Legal Education (CLE) seminars. The OCDC staff gave presentations to the following organizations: American Red Cross; Edward Jones; Evans & Dixon; Hannibal Bar Association; Jasper County Bar Association; Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations – Workers' Compensation; Ross R. Robert's Trial Academy; Springfield Metropolitan Bar Association; St. Joseph Bar Association; St. Louis County Bar Association; and Washington University, School of Law. The OCDC staff also spoke at the Missouri Bar's Solo and Small Firm Conference, several Missouri Bar telephone CLEs and webinars, and many other CLE presentations sponsored by the Missouri Bar and other organizations.

IX. SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES IN 2014

Disciplinary Case Processing

The Supreme Court has established timeline standards for the disposition of pending cases that seek to complete 75% of investigations within six months and 90% of investigations within one year. During 2014, the OCDC and the disciplinary system partially met these timeline standards during the first, second and third quarters and failed to meet the timeline standards during the fourth quarter.

Policy regarding Frequent Complaint Recipients

The OCDC devotes a significant amount of its resources to complaints against attorneys who are frequent complaint recipients (FCR attorneys). In an effort to address this issue, the OCDC adopted a policy intended to identify and meet with FCR attorneys in order to discuss and address law practice management issues and any other issues that affect the FCR attorney's practice and contribute to client complaints. In addition, the FCR meetings are intended to inform the attorney regarding the disciplinary process and the system of progressive discipline adhered to by the Supreme Court and the OCDC. During 2014, the Chief Disciplinary Counsel continued to meet with FCR attorneys pursuant to this policy.

Law Practice Management Course

For the past several years, with the support and approval of the Supreme Court, the OCDC has worked with The Missouri Bar to present a comprehensive program to address the issues raised by the lack of law practice management skills among a few members of the Bar whose clients have repeatedly complained against them. This cooperative effort resulted in the development of a practice management course staffed by a distinguished faculty of lawyers from around the state. In 2014, the course was offered through a series of webinars as well as a full-day in-person session in Columbia, Missouri. Twenty-nine (29) lawyers attended the course in 2014. Sarah Read, a law practice management consultant, has contacted those attorneys who attended the course in 2014 and has been conducting a series of interactive discussion groups with many of the attendees to track their progress in meeting their law practice management goals.

OCDC and LEC Physical Facilities

In 2013, the Supreme Court approved the acquisition of an unimproved site adjacent to the existing OCDC facility for the construction of a new building to serve the future needs of the disciplinary system. The Court also approved the retention and renovation of the existing OCDC facility in order to serve as the future headquarters of the Advisory Committee and Office of Legal Ethics Counsel. Following a competitive bidding process, a contract was awarded in 2014 for the capital improvement project and construction commenced. Construction on the new OCDC building was completed and the OCDC staff moved into its new facility on July 1, 2015. Renovation of the old OCDC building for use by the Advisory Committee and the Office of Legal Ethics Counsel is underway and expected to be completed in September 2015.

Regional Disciplinary Committee Training

The OCDC is an accredited MCLE provider. In 2014, we hosted a training session and MCLE presentation for the benefit of Special Representatives who serve the Regional Disciplinary Committees and who participate in the disciplinary system at the regional level throughout the state.

Staff Training

In 2014, the OCDC attorney staff participated in training by attending conferences offered by The Missouri Bar, the National Organization of Bar Counsel and the American Bar Association – Center for Professional Responsibility. Paralegals at the OCDC attended and presented training through the Missouri Paralegal Association and the Organization of Bar Investigators, an organization affiliated with the National Organization of Bar Counsel.

Supreme Court Rule 5

On July 9, 2014, the Court adopted amendments to Rule 5.21 - the rule establishing a discipline procedure when lawyers are found guilty or convicted of crimes. The amendments establish distinct procedures for situations where the OCDC seeks an interim suspension upon a guilty finding (and later seeks permanent discipline upon final disposition of the criminal case) and those situations where the OCDC does not seek interim suspension, and instead waits for a final disposition in the underlying criminal case before seeking discipline.

SUMMARY OF DISCIPLINE ACTIONS

During 2014:

- 25 Twenty-five lawyers were disbarred;
- 30 Thirty lawyers were suspended; twelve of those suspensions were stayed and attorneys placed on probation with conditions; additionally, the Court lifted the stay on three lawyers' earlier suspensions, revoking their probation;
- 1 One lawyer was placed on probation where no suspension was imposed;
- 36 Thirty-six lawyers were suspended pursuant to Rule 5.245 (Failure to Pay Tax);
- 2 Two lawyers received public reprimands; and
- 93 Ninety-three written admonitions were administered by the Regional Disciplinary Committees and the OCDC.

On occasion, other pending complaints against a lawyer are dismissed upon that lawyer's disbarment or suspension.

LEGAL ETHICS COUNSEL ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2014

I. LEGAL ETHICS COUNSEL ROLE

A. Informal Advisory Opinions

Pursuant to Rule 5.30(c), the Legal Ethics Counsel issues nonbinding informal advisory opinions.

The Legal Ethics Counsel office provided 1,780 oral informal advisory opinions via telephone. Many of these opinions involved multiple questions. Opinions given in conjunction with informal contact at bar meetings and CLE programs are generally not included in this count.

The Legal Ethics Counsel also provided 42 written informal advisory opinions.

B. CLE Presentations

The Legal Ethics Counsel prepared and gave 18 CLE presentations for various groups, including: The Missouri Bar, Missouri Attorney General's Office, and National Organization of Bar Counsel.

II. COUNSEL TO ADVISORY COMMITTEE ROLE:

Rule 5.07(b) provides that the Legal Ethics Counsel shall serve as staff to the Advisory Committee.

A. Review Summaries

Pursuant to Rule 5.12, the Advisory Committee reviews investigation files if the OCDC or a Regional Disciplinary Committee finds no probable cause and the complainant requests review. The Legal Ethics Counsel office summarized and distributed 58 review files.

B. Hearings

The Legal Ethics Counsel office provided assistance with arrangements for hearings, as requested, to Disciplinary Hearing Officers.

The Legal Ethics Counsel administered the hearing process to assist the Chair of the Advisory Committee. The Legal Ethics Counsel proposes a hearing panel, provides the file to the hearing panel once the panel has been approved by the Chair, monitors the progress of the hearing, and assists the hearing officers with issues that arise during the course of the process. 24 Informations were filed in 2014.

Rule 5.16 provides, in part:

(e) The written decision of the disciplinary hearing panel shall be filed with the chair of the advisory committee. The chair shall review the panel's decision for the limited purpose of determining that the recommendation for discipline, if any, conforms to this Rule 5 and the sanctions established by the Court. If the chair of the advisory committee determines that the panel's recommendation does not conform, the chair shall direct the disciplinary hearing panel to reconsider its recommendation for discipline. After reconsideration, the panel shall file the revised written decision with the chair of the advisory committee.

(f) The chair of the advisory committee shall serve the written decision of the disciplinary hearing panel by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, on the respondent, the counsel for the informant, and the chief disciplinary counsel.

The Legal Ethics Counsel performs the majority of these duties on behalf of, and in consultation with, the Chair.

C. Budget

The Legal Ethics Counsel prepared a proposed budget for the Advisory Committee and LEC for 2015.

D. Meetings

The Legal Ethics Counsel office coordinated arrangements for four regular Advisory Committee meetings, and one budget conference call meeting. The Legal Ethics Counsel office also prepares agendas and meeting materials, as well as records and prepares the minutes for these meetings.

E. Formal Opinions

The Legal Ethics Counsel provides assistance in relation to reviewing requests for formal opinions and possible appropriate topics for formal opinions.

F. Overdraft Reporting/Financial Institution Approval

Beginning January 1, 2010, Missouri attorneys were required to have their trust accounts at financial institutions “approved” by the Advisory Committee. In order to be approved, the financial institution must enter into an agreement to report insufficient funds situations that arise on attorneys’ trust accounts to the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel. The Legal Ethics Counsel handles issues related to bank name changes, mergers, etc., as they relate to approved status. The Legal Ethics Counsel maintains a list of approved banks on the office website.

G. Other matters

The Legal Ethics Counsel maintained a website for the Advisory Committee and Legal Ethics Counsel, www.mo-legal-ethics.org. The website includes a list of pending disciplinary matters, a calendar of upcoming disciplinary hearings, information on public access to disciplinary records pursuant to Rule 5.31, articles and CLE materials on legal ethics issues prepared by the Legal Ethics Counsel, and links to various resources.

The Legal Ethics Counsel served on the program committee for the National Organization of Bar Counsel.

The Legal Ethics Counsel served on the Planning Committee for The Missouri Bar’s Solo & Small Firm Conference.
